Christmas Mail At Record High

Daly City post office, entering its first Christmas as an independent service, handled one-half million pieces of incoming mail Wednesday and processed 60,180 outgoing letters for an all-time high here and what was believed to be one of the biggest one-day volumes in San Mateo county.

Processing an amount of Christmas mail this week that veteran clerks said was "unprecedented in a city this size," Postmaster Vincent Murphy said the real landslide of Yule post office business was yet to come.

"I think it will keep increasing right up to the middle of next week," the Postmaster said.

Sharpest Jump

While there are no records from last Christmas to base comparison, since Daly City was then a branch of San Francisco post office, the 1954 volume of mail here is believed to have risen more in a one-year period than in any other city in the county.

In addition to the half-million incoming and 60,180 outgoing processed Wednesday, the local office handled 2200 pieces of parcel post material.

Indicating the daily jump in outgoing mail volume were the figures for Tuesday, when 55,235 pieces were cancelled. The following day showed an increase of nearly 5000.

Stamp Sales $2700

Revenue from stamp sales hit $2700 Wednesday, up $200 from the previous day. Murphy reported that at 11:30 a.m. yesterday (Thursday) a total of $2200 had been spent for stamps, leading to the belief that the local PO would transact more than $3000 in stamp business for the day.

A total of 62 extra Christmas

Postmaster Murphy
. . . Expectations Exceeded

employees have augmented the regular staff of 52 post office personnel.

Of this total, 40 part-time and 32 permanent employees are working out of the main Daly City office. Eighteen part-time and 13 full-time staff the Westlake branch, while three permanent and one temporary worker handle the Colma turnover.

Remainder of the employees work out of emergency headquarters established on the second floor of the Daly City community center, where parcel post material is processed.

Cut Extra Window

In Westlake, business was so rushed that an extra window had to be sawed out of the partition. At that station Murphy estimated 1100 persons a day were making transactions inside the office. At the main branch the postmaster said aproximately 1900 people a day were being serviced, while Colma was handling close to 1000. These figures do not include persons who drop their mail in boxes.

Four clerks staff both the Daly City office and the Westlake branch, while there are three persons at Colma, with the bulk of remaining employees being carriers.

Murphy summed up the "land-office" business of Daly City's new independent post office with the statement, "It far exceeds any expectations."

The Town Record

By MONTE DAYTON

That muni bus driver who was so tanked up one a.m. last week on San Jose avenue managed to maintain some semblance of rational thought.

Fearing that fellow drivers would spot him as they made the turn at the San Jose-Mission terminal, said bus jockey walked into THE RECORD, purchased a copy of The Shopping News and discreetly buried his head on the want-ad section as he sat in his parked car.

We still don't know whether he was trying to remain anonymous or looking for a new job.

The compleat publicist: BUCK HANNON, spaceman for HENRY DOELGER, has a Christmas tree adorned with ornaments, lighting and all smack dab on the trunk of his MG auto.

On the tip-top of the fir is a plug for Westlake Homes, and Buck says the tree is the best advertising media he has come across.

"Readership" averages some 10,000 a day and, for the cost, it beats even skywriting.

Down at Gamble's in Broadmoor LOU BUCKLEY is leading a double life, all for the sake of Christmas.

Manager of the store, he has to play Santa Claus on weekends.

He's not spying on employees, though. They know it's the boss behind the whiskers.

In Broadmoor, Boy Scouts are orphans.

San Francisco and San Mateo Scout Councils still can't make up their mind who Broadmoor belongs to and as a result the Scouting program is having a hard time getting off the ground.

JOE BROWN, Daly City rec supervisor at Lincoln playground and former figure of some renown in the boxing world, took the long count Tuesday night.

The long count (at least it's that way to all new fathers) came at Stanford hospital, as Joe's wife, THERESA TERRY, gave birth to an 8 lbs., 8 oz. baby girl, named MARY.

This wasn't observed first hand, but sources say the infant Mary swung a wicked left hook at the doc on the way out of the labor room.

That was baseball's Pacific Coast League Umpire CHRIS PELKOUGAS reffing Tuesday's Jeff-Tamalpais basketball game.

Elderly Man Hit By DC Driver Dies

An 85-year-old San Francisco man struck down December 7 by a young Daly City motorist died Tuesday night in Franklin hospital as a result of injuries suffered.

Victim of the accident was Maurice Schoeuer, 1288 Mission street, who was hit at Ninth and Mission streets.

Former Jefferson High football star Jack Thur, 19, of 99 San Joaquin, was driver of the auto that struck Scheuer. He was not cited. According to police the elderly man was not in the crosswalk and he did not see him in time to stop.

Refer Gateway Chevie Request To Planners

Application of Gateway Chevrolet, 7400 Mission street, for use permit on property at Allemany street in Colma was ordered referred to the planning commission by the city council Monday night.

The firm seeks to develop the property for a parking lot.

OK Permanent Job For Maintenance Man

Permanent appointment of Joe Bloem as recreation department maintenance man for playgrounds was approved Monday night by the city council.

James Mason, recreation director, said Bloem had successfully completed his one-year probationary period.

Claim For $20,000 Lodged Against DC For Fall On Street

Claim for $20,000 against the city of Daly City for injuries allegedly suffered in a fall on Wellington avenue October 23 was entered at Monday night's council meeting by Hallie Overbey, 3894 Twenty Second avenue, San Francisco.

Council moved the claim be denied and referred it to the city attorney.

The complainant states that while crossing Wellington near Hanover street she fell, suffering a broken leg. She alleges that the public property was "defective."

FOUR CAR SERRA SMASHUP HURTS 2

Two persons received minor injuries Saturday at noon in a four-car crack-up on Junipero Serra boulevard near North Parkview.

Lackie Combset, 69, of Geyserville, Calif., and John Roselli, 56, of 916 Ninth street, San Mateo, were taken to Junipero Serra hospital for treatment of minor hurts. Mrs. Combset suffered a strained neck, while Roselli sustained bruises about the abdomen.

Driver of the vehicle who started the "chain reaction," Thomas Wilson Baerens, 43, of 147 Clay, San Francisco, was cited by police for following too close behind another auto.

According to officers, all four cars involved were travelling south on the boulevard. Behind the other three cars, Baerens failed to stop in time after the auto in front of his applied the brakes. Baerens' vehicle struck one driven by Roselli. His auto collided with that of Roy Combset, 33, son of the injured woman, which in turn hit the auto in front of his, driven by Maria Etcheto, 57, of 362 Victoria, San Francisco.

Board Questions Six Architects Seeking School Job

Six architects were interviewed Wednesday night by the Jefferson Elementary School district board of trustees to determine who will be retained to handle the Margaret Pauline Brown school project.

Among the six interviewed was Mario J. Ciampi, who up to this time has been given all school district architectural work.

Recently the board decided to alter the usual procedure and offer architects an opportunity to show their qualifications for the local work.

In addition to Ciampi, firms interviewed Wednesday included: Janssen-Baseking-Keller, Louis Baldini, Hertzka & Knowles, Carl Warnecke and Green & Erskine.

In other action Monday trustees adopted resolutions of acceptance on two important one acre school sites—George Shinazy property in Broadmoor, where remainder of the Benjamin Franklin school will be built; and Henry Doelger property at the end of Bradley drive in Westlake, where Vista Del Mar school will be erected. The former was purchased at a price estimated at $6000, while the latter was bought for $6800. Purchase of the one additional acre on Bradley gives the school district a total of eight acres for Vista Del Mar, all

Council Introduces Ordinance To Annex Doelger's 440 Acres

In the face of scattered protests by the citizenry and lengthy argument by members of the Daly City recreation commission, the city council Monday night tentatively approved annexation of 440 acres of Henry Doelger property on Skyline boulevard.

A throng of some 80 interested citizens and officials gathered for the public hearing to hear pros and cons on the annexation of a 3000-home area that will eventually swell Daly City's population by 10,000 persons.

At the end of two hours of debate on the proposal the hearing was closed, and Councilman Edward Dennis introduced a pre-drafted ordinance calling for annexation of the Doelger property, known as "Westlake Highlands."

Councilman Sanford Vickers, in maintaining that the Doelger firm should offer the city more facilities, said, "The city must accept the leadership and responsibility so as to prevent curtailment of facilities in our older areas."

Under the agreement drawn up, Doelger will give two park sites, one fire house site, property for a reservoir and "make available" four additional recreation sites.

In answer to Vickers' statement, Mayor Joseph Verducci asked, "How will this annexation hurt development in the old areas?"

Vickers charged that the city may have inadequate funds to finance projects both in old and the new areas and thus might be forced to neglect the older section in the face of emergency needs in the new development.

Quotes Survey

Verducci then drew from a survey prepared by Robert Hunter, certified public accountant, explaining that when the 3000-home subdivision was completed there would be an annual revenue to the city amounting to $109,000 more than operating expenses.

Mrs. Ivan Budaeff, a member of the audience, arose at one time to state that two park sites seemed inadequate. "The generosity of providing two park sites overwhelms me," she said sarcastically.

"This annexation seems to the city's disadvantage," she continued. Addressing the council, she added, "You're good businessmen. It seems to me you could have done better than this in your agreement with Doelger."

The mayor immediately answered, "You're entitled to your opinions, lady, but we've spent many hours negotiating with the Doelger firm and believe we've reached a fair agreement."

"We Payed For"

Julius Castelan, a civil engineer, then took the floor: "The last time this fellow (Doelger) was here he showed us a map with all the city facilities provided for. We wound up paying for them. He advertises he brought in 10,000 people. So what? He's made money off each one of them."

Castelan argued that there was always the possibility of Daly's City's water supply running out. He demanded to know if any survey had been made regarding the water table, to which Water Superintendent Charles Ford answered there had been.

"I'm all for progress," Castelan continued, "But I think the builder should provide for recreation, sewer, water, and other city facilities."

Holding out for a minumum of 12 acres of park sites was Recrea-

Charge Man Drunk Near Accident Site

Robert Andrew Furbee, 45-year-old roofer of 298 Westlake avenue, was arrested for drunkenness Sunday evening after he was found "staggering and incoherent" near the site of an auto accident at Westlake and Miriam streets, police said.

According to arresting officers Jim Sundeland and Charles Terry, Furbee had earlier been involved in auto smashup on Westlake near Miriam. He allegedly ran into a car travelling east on Westlake, driven by Elmer E. Hill, 42, of 330 Miriam street. Hill was cited for making a wide right hand turn near Miriam.

Furbee was released on $250 cash bail posted by Gus Sebastiani. Furbee is scheduled to appear on the charge of being drunk in or about an auto in municipal court Tuesday morning.

Hold Over Bids On Mission Circle

Bids of six contractors for widening of Mission Circle to a two-lane thoroughfare were referred to City Engineer Edwin Smith by the council Monday night.

Smith will make his recommendation at next Monday's adjourned meeting, at which time contract is scheduled to be awarded.

Of the six bids submitted, O. C. Jones & Sons was low with a figure of $3747.60. Figures ranged to a high of $5148. The engineer's estimate of the project to widen Mission Circle from 24 to 34 feet was $3500.

At present the narrow street accommodates only north-bound traffic.

A 44-year-old Daly City man was found guilty on two counts of child molesting in Judge Louis B. Dematteis' Superior Court Wednesday and time of sentencing was set for Monday at 4 p.m.

After three days of trial in which the accused, George Workman, 92 Los Olivos, was represented by local attorney Thomas Gallen, the jury returned verdicts of guilty on separate counts of contributing to the delinquency of minors and a crime against nature. Workman was found not guilty on a third count of contributing

A Berkeley man was hospitalized at Junipero Serra early Tuesday morning after being involved in a smash-up at the intersection of Skyline and Alemany boulevards.

Sylvan Morris, 49, of 2949½ Oregon street, was treated for shock, a ¾ laceration on the jaw and cuts about the eyes.

Accident occurred, police said, as Morris was driving west on Alemany. Ralph Marvin Toms, 19, of 1119 Escalero road, Pedro Valley, travelling east on Ocean Shore highway, made a sudden left turn in front of the Morris vehicle at Skyline and they collided, according to investigating officers.

Neither driver was cited.

Company winning the contract will supply the city with approximately 3100 gallons a month.

A 22-year-old Broadmoor youth was arraigned on a count of statutory rape Tuesday in municipal court after the father of a 13-year-old local school girl charged that he had accosted his daughter on two different occasions early this month.

DC Accident-Free On Safe Driving Day

Yesterday (Thursday) at 12 noon Daly City had weathered 36 hours straight without an auto accident after completing Wednesday's 24-hour Safe Driving day with flying colors.

During Wednesday's safe driving campaign, launched by the National Safety Council and endorsed by President Dwight D. Eisenhower, Daly City had a spotless record on the roads.

Inspector Henry Sundermann, who headed S-D day here, said there was not so much as a scraped fender during the 24-hour period starting at 12:01 a.m. Wednesday. The unblemished record was still being maintained yesterday 12 hours after the campaign ended.

Two motorcycle policemen and a patrol car manned by two officers maintained tight enforcement of the city's traffic laws Wednesday, citing some 35 drivers and merely cautioning others. A loudspeaker in the patrol car was used to advise pedestrians to do their part in the drive to eliminate traffic accidents.

In accordance with the national campaign, Municipal Judge Thomas L. Bocci gave notice that all persons who violated traffic laws on S-D day would be given double fines.

Following successful completion of S-D day here, Sundermann and Police Chief Roland Petrocchi extended thanks to Daly City drivers and pedestrians for their cooperation. He said the record was "outstanding."

However, for Daly City, accident-free days are nothing new. During the past year police records show 25 days passed without a single road mishap reported. During the past three years Daly City has received awards from safety groups for their perfect record of no traffic fatalities.

In Broadmoor, Police Chief Ray Savage reported an equally laudable record for the 24-hour Safe Driving day period.

Not a single accident was reported, and Savage said it was a "normal" day. Two patrol cars were on duty to discourage any vehicle violations. A total of seven speeding tags were issued during the 24-hour stint.

Two Plead Guilty To Drunk Charges

Katrina Reed, 33, of 139 Vista Grande avenue, pleaded guilty to charges that she was drunk in a public place at 6282 Mission street December 5 and was given alternative of five days in county jail ro $25 fine in municipal court action Tuesday.

STATE TO CONDEMN NORTON PROPERTY FOR SKYLINE WORK

Division of highways has started condemnation proceedings against Murray Norton for easement rights on property bordering on Skyline boulevard and Ocean Shore highway, it was revealed in a letter to the council Monday night.

B. W. Booker, state highway engineer, in requesting that the city council grant no use permits or re-zoning for the property concerned, said that the state would seek a judgement against Norton for the property "as soon as possible."

Plans for widening Skyline boulevard north of Alemany boulevard are in final stages, Booker explained.

In considering Booker's letter, Councilman Del Wilson moved that the city administrator should advise the state of the potential traffic hazard which will exist on the proposed freeway at the Northgate crossing.

CALL BIDS AGAIN ON RESERVOIR ROOF

For the second time, councilmen Monday night called for bids on re-roofing Reservoir No. 3.

Bids on the project, estimated by City Engineer Edwin Smith to cost $10,000, were opened November 22 but held over after Smith said the figures were "too high." Both contractors submitted prices in excess of $16,000.

It was disclosed this week, however, that the two bids had to be rejected, since the city had failed to advertise notice to bidders in this publication.

New bids will be opened November 10.

DALY CITY -- A PUNY DISPLAY

What's the matter with this side of town when it comes to civic consciousness?

Westlake subdivision, Broadmoor and every other community with any gumption is sponsoring an outdoor Christmas lighting contest for its residents.

Such displays emphasize the religious importance of this natal day and add to the festivity of the holiday season.

In Daly City, we can think of at least five organizations who could have been instrumental in promoting an outdoor lighting contest.

The city, of course, has raised its annual, if somewhat worn, array of ornamentation for the streets.

But in comparison with other adjacent areas Daly City's display of Christmas spirit is puny at best.

With the number of civic groups whose purported aim is to work for the betterment and enrichment of life in Daly City, we are hard put to understand why such an important annual event as Christmas is granted less consideration than spring clean-up week.

Letters To The Editor

BOARD GRATEFUL FOR NEWS COVERAGE

The board of trustees of the Jefferson Elementary School district are grateful to THE RECORD for the editorial support for the recent, successful, $1,486,00 bond issue for buildings and equipment.

As trustees for the district we keenly realize the many problems that are created by the rapid growth of the district.

We are alert to our responsibility to provide the best possible educational opportunity to the children.

Without the fine support given by THE RECORD and other groups and agencies throughout the community it would not be possible for us to fulfill our vital responsibility.

Sincerely yours,
Board of Trustees

My Mad World

By Leonore Brewer

Once again the San Francisco Ballet adds sparkle and gaiety to the Christmas season with their traditional presentation of "The Nutcracker" on December 18 and 19, matinees only, at the Opera House. This fairy-tale Christmas ballet received its world premiere on December 17, 1892, at the Maryinsky Theatre, St. Petersburg, sixty-two years ago almost to the day of this year's local performance.

In honor of the tenth anniversary of this holiday treat, new sets and costumes have been designed by Leonard Weisgard of New York and there has also been an original libretto restoration by James Graham-Lujan, with choreography by Lew Christensen.

Nancy Johnson, Westlake's own prima ballerina, will dance the Sugarplum Fairy, a role that has been associated with principal ballerinas since it was first created by Antonietta dell-Era in the original production. Sally Bailey will dance the Snow Queen and Gordon Paxman and Conrad Ludlow will appear in the principal male roles.

Innocent Merriment

With so many activities in the ballet and concert world, we have been neglecting films lately, however, we did take advantage of the Stage Door's reviving two older pictures: "Dr. Jekyl and Mr. Hyde" and "A Woman's Face." The former stars Spencer Tracy and was the subject of some innocent merriment between Sea-vue Theatre manager Hal Honore and the writer a few months ago. However that was not the film we went to see.

Long, long ago we fell in love with a voice, that of Conrad Veidt. He has been dead for several years and the films in which he played an important role are seldom re-released. "A Woman's Face" didn't do anything to advance the career of anyone who played in it, but we were happy to see it again and just sit there and listen to that magical voice.

Veidt rose to fame in what has since been termed the golden age of European films, and so was no longer young when we first became conscious of him in the role of Matternich in "Congress Dances." We saw it again two or three years ago and must admit that, like so many vintage films, it must be seen con amore and not with a critical eye.

Film Censorship

Then there were "The Passing of the Third Floor Back" and "Power." The latter holds an important place in the development of our film taste as it was the first time that we were aware that such a thing as film censorship existed. It was utterly condemned. We saw it, thought it was wonderful and read the book twice. Of course, we would have seen it anyway, banned or not—it had Veidt in the leading role.

He also made "The Men in Her Life" with Loretta Young. It is a butchered screen adaptation of Lady Elinor Smith's book, "Ballerina." Despite the fact that we disapproved of the changes in the story line we saw it two or three times and would see it again. Considering the current national interest in the ballet, it might not be a bad idea to re-release this one.

PTA News Editor Gives Reflections On Christ's Example

(Ed. Note: Following is a reprint of an article published in the Hillside PTA Echoes, written by the editor, Mrs. W. H. Beck. With the Christmas season upon us, we believe her message is well worth reading.)

In the hustle and bustle of festive preparations for our most elaborate holiday and the mad rush to buy gifts for friends, relatives and helpers, perhaps it would be well to take a few minutes each day to reflect on the meaning of the example Christ set for the world as He went about His daily tasks.

No matter what your religious tenets may be, the lesson He left for humanity cannot be shunted aside. Perhaps you doubt the authenticity of the miracles, but you canot ignore the truth of His example if you will examine your own lives and start building the kind of courage He showed.

How many of us start life with the stigma He had to endure? How many can resist the temptation to put our desires for worldly goods and comforts aside and devote ourselves so unstintingly to the task of helping the downtrodden and oppressed, the discouraged and the weak, the disheartened and the worried? How many can control ourselves to the extent of ignoring criticisms and persecutions and doing each day's work to the best of our ability? How many can restrain impulses to criticize and think problems through to the point where we can give constructive help in a problem rather than condemnation.

Perhaps more than any other gift we can make at this time, the gift that would be most valuable to all of us in Hillside PTA would be restraint in speaking and courage in examining ourselves to get the understanding and wisdom we need to solve the problems in our school. It takes more courage and good will to ask this of ourselves than it does to criticize, but the resulting peace in our lives and the lives of our children and their teachers should be worth the effort. We certainly would be able to perform our work of subduing the earth better and have happier, more alert children.

Isn't this the joy that Christ showed us was available to anyone?

Safety News From Four Local Police

Inspector H. Sundermann, Daly City Police Dept. today urged Christmas shoppers not to be too trusting, even though it is the time of year when Americans traditionally are full of good will for their fellow men.

"The type of pedestrian who gives traffic officers the most trouble at this time of year" he said, "is the fellow who steps off the curb, his arms loaded with Christmas presents, his face wreathed in smiles, his eyes full of trust. He's sure motorists won't hit him.

"But during this month's holiday traffic hazards program, we of the Daly City Police Dept. along with the National Safety Council, would like to warn every pedestrian that it's not a safe bet to assume a motorist will stop for you when he's driving on wet streets.

"Sometimes it's extremely difficult for a motorist to stop his car in time to avoid hitting a pedestrian.

For this reason, Inspector Sundermann appealed to all Christmas shoppers to abide by the following safe walking rules.

1. Don't carry so many packages that obscure your vision directly ahead, to the side, and of the pavement.

2. Be certain your parcels are tied securely. If you should happen to drop a package in midstreet, look carefully before stooping to pick it up.

3. Avoid hurrying through crowded city streets in a "holidaze."

It's important that you stay alert. The tendency to hurry with arms loaded with packages, not completely alert, can be suicidal.

Daly City Library To Close Two Days

Daly City public library will be closed Friday and Saturday of this week while a $1381 shelving project is in progress.

Included in the project is installation of new book and magazine shelves. Book shelving will cost $1173, while the magazine containers will run $208.

Regular library hours will be resumed on Monday.

"LITTLE RENO" IN N. COUNTY, CALLAN CHARGES

Thomas Callan Sr., the tempestuous San Mateo county supervisor from Colma, last week labelled this end of the county as "Little Reno."

His description of this area came as the county supervisors were considering an amended ordinance imposing tighter restrictions on card room ordinance.

Supervisors Callan and William Werder of Redwood City voted against the measure, holding out for an even more stringent gaining law than the one up for consideration. It passed over their opposition, however, by a 3-2 margin.

The new, as proposed by District Attorney Keith Sorenson, provides that annual tax on a one-table cardroom will be $75, $150 for two tables and $300 for three.

"I happen to live in 'Little Reno,' Callan asserted. "Up in Brisbane and Bayshore they have plenty of this gambling going on. I'd say charge then $500 a year for the second table and $5000 for the third table."

Extended Hours PO Service Told

Extended hours of service for the patrons of the Daly City Post Office were announced today by Postmaster Vincent P. Murphy.

Windows at the main office on Bepler street, in Westlake station and in Colma branch are open from 7:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. including this Saturday.

On Sunday, December 19, the main office and the Westlake station will remain open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Colma station will remain closed.

Starting December 20, through December 24, all three stations will remain open from 7:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. Windows will close at 6 p.m. on Christmas eve, and will remain closed all day Christmas.

Murphy stated that city delivery service will be on a continuous basis from December 15 to 24, and that special delivery service will be increased to take care of additional mails.

LIGHTING, DECOR CONTEST FOR BROADMOOR TOLD

The Broadmoor Property Owners' association is again sponsoring an outdoor lighting and decorating contest for the 1954 holiday season. Eight prizes, some valued as high as $50, will be awarded.

Three impartial judges who are not residents of Broadmoor will select the winners. Judging will take place some evening between December 19 and December 26. Decorations must be lighted to be judged.

Winners will be notified by letter to be present at the first 1955 regular meeting of the B.P.O.A. January 13 for the presentation of prizes. Prizes will be on display at that time, with first-place winner having first choice, second having second choice, etc.

All residents of Broadmoor are eligible and are invited to participate in outdoor lighting and decorating in a general Christmas holiday motif. Contestants duplicating last year's display will be disqualified.

For further information concerning the contest those interested may phone PL. 5-0482.

Unincorporated Areas Plot Move In Annex Threat

Monday night civic leaders representing Broadmoor, Garden Village, Sterling Park, Broadmoor and Colma police and fire districts will gather at the Colma fire house to map a definite course of action on measures proposing incorporation and annexation.

Citizens in those areas have expressed alarm over threat of annexation by neighboring municipalities, mainly the city of Daly City.

At a recent meeting the citizens group moved to draft a plan for setting up boundaries which would block future annexation of property lying within the Broadmoor police district.

COMMISSION PROBES DELAY CHARGE ON FIRE

Citizen charges of a 15-minute delay by the Daly City fire department in reaching a fire at 133 Westbrook December 3 were investigated by the local fire commission at their regular meeting Thursday night.

Concensus of the commission after considering all evidence was that from three to five minutes had elapsed between the time the box alarm was turned in at the No. 5 station on Lake Merced and the fire engines reached the burning home.

According to Robert Hunter, commission secretary, a resident of the burning home had apparently dialed operator and asked for the 'fire department," not stating which fire department.

Hunter said the operator must have given her the San Francisco department, who evidently looked up Westbrook and, finding it to be in Daly City, called the local police department, who in turn notified Daly City firemen.

However, Commissioners said, by the time the call had made the circuit back to the local fire department, they had already been alerted by the box alarm.

Commissioners instructed Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy to write a letter to the telephone company requesting that all emergency calls be routed to local departments rather than to San Francisco.

They urged that numbers of local police and fire facilities be posted in the telephone operators headquarters to facilitate handling of emergency calls.

In addition, commissioners called for a publicity campaign to urge Daly City residents to tell the operators where they are calling from in case of emergency "There's only one drawback," Hunter said. "Some of the people in Westlake still think they're living in San Francisco."

The commission pointed out, however, that if homeowners would immediately pull a box alarm following a fire incidents such as the recent fire here would not recur.

A campaign to inform residents where box alarms are located was also suggested by the commission.

FRANK BLUM NAMED TO AMERICAN BAR

The election of a Daly City lawyer, Frank B. Blum of 33 Dorchester, to membership in the American Bar association was announced today by the Board of Governors of the Association.

Blum's office is located at 6836 Mission street.

Fountled in 1878, the American Bar Association is the leading national organization of the legal profession. It engages in numerous activities in the interest of the public and the legal profession. The Association's headquarters are in the newly-completed American Bar Center in Chicago.

Westlake Scouts In Initial Meet After Re-organizing

Westlake Boy Scout Troop 248 last week held its first official meeting since the reorganization of the troop a week earlier. The Scouts conducted the meeting at the Westlake clubhouse at 95 S. Mayfair avenue.

The meeting was opened by Scoutmaster Al Belotz who presented the 15 scouts in attendance a brief outline as to what has to be done to bring the troop back into the position it was when the troop was first organized. He also outlined what the boys can expect to get out of scouting in the future with the troop.

Two Assistants

Belotz introduced his second assistant Scoutmaster, Melvin Wilner, who will be working with the scouts along with Ralph Gumbinger, the troops' other assistant Scoutmaster.

Techniques in troop formation and marching were demonstrated to the scouts by Wilner and Gumbinger. This activity was then followed by an election of temporary Patrol Leaders and the troop was divided into three patrols.

The first patrol, headed by Patrol Leader Mike Silberstein, consisted of the following Scouts: Eric Rossovich, Bruce Ladner, Frank Vlahovich and Philip Ziegler. The second patrol, led by Patrol Leader Dave Dunbar, was composed of Ronald Laurie, Ken Franges, Avie Katz and Richard Ellis. Paul Hanley and Bruce Wilson, co-leaders of the third patrol, had in their group Mike McGovern, Clark Beerman and Mike Shanahan.

A game period followed with the playing of "Steal the Bacon."

The patrols were instructed in preparing a short skit for the coming Christmas party to be held Tuesday and to concentrate on their test passing for the coming meetings. Each scout was given a piece of rope to practice their knot tying for a future meeting.

Meet With Fathers

While the troop meeting was being conducted by both assistant Scoutmasters, Scoutmaster Belotz joined in another meeting with the fathers of some of the Scouts who were present to elect a troop committee. This meeting, presided over by Ernie McAvoy, Lake Merced district chairman of the organization and extension committee, reported that the election of a Troop committee produced the following group: Albert Wilson, chairman; Irwin Silberstein, secretary-treasurer; Edwin Hanley, George Vlahovich and Harold Seither, troop committee members.

The troop leaders expressed their satisfaction and approval of the new committee and Chairman Al Wilson promised full cooperation for the troop from the committee and Chairman Al Wilson promised full cooperation for the troop from the committee in the future. Wilson also stated that the committee needed other interested fathers who would like to serve either on the committee or in some other capacity.

McAvoy offered to contact the sponsoring group, the Westlake Improvement association, to help in the selection of an institutional representative.

The meeting was adjourned at 9 p.m. with the recitation of the Scout Law.

NAME 2 BPOA DIRECTORS TO FILL VACANCIES

Resignation of two Broadmoor Property Owners association directors was accepted Thursday night and two persons were appointed to fill their posts.

Grant Holman, junior past president of the group who lives at 983 Foothill drive, submitted his resignation because of the press of his private attorney practice. He had served as BPOA president last year.

Named to fill the vacancy was Amos Bechtold, also an attorney, who lives at 704 Maddux drive.

Board member Ernest Scott resigned because he has moved to Westlake. Martin Orloff, an insurance broker who lives at 741 Stewart, was appointed to the position held by Scott.

Broadmoor Cops Arrest Early Morn Driver As Drunk

A San Francisco man was arrested for drunken driving and his companion was charged with being drunk in an automobile after Broadmoor police arrested the pair on El Camino Real in Colma early Tuesday morning.

According to Sgt. Don Tannehill, the vehicle, driven by Bernard D. McCabe, 40, 160 Chestnut street, struck a highway dividing marker while travelling south in an erratic manner on El Camino Real.

Broadmoor Police Chief Ray Savage set bail for McCabe at $250.

A passenger in the McCabe auto, Charles Seymour Harvey, 44, 3763 17th street, also of San Francisco, was charged with being drunk in the vehicle and Savage set bail at $50.

Neither had met bail yesterday and were still confined at the county jail in Redwood City.

COUNCIL INTRODUCES ORDINANCE TO ANNEX DOELGER'S 440 ACRES

Daly City Could Handle 80,000 Evacuees From SF.

In event of disaster or air attack, Daly City-Broadmoor areas would be able to house and feed more than 80,000 San Francisco evacuees, according to a civil defense survey conducted here last week.

A total of 387 homes and business places throughout the area were contacted by the 100 volunteer workers making the survey to determine San Mateo county's ability to handle San Francisco evacuees.

Of the 387 returns, 374 said they would shelter one or more persons. Only 13 persons answered in the negative. The 374 persons said they could handle 2560 dispersees, giving an average of 6.6 evacuees per home.

Tentative returns of the survey showed that this area could provide shelter for 82,418. Of this total 49,575 could be billeted in homes while the balance would be accommodated in what was termed as "congregate" shelters—hotels, motels, lots for parking cars and rudimentary dwellings such as garages.

The report showed the citizens of the area could feed 81,381.

Other figures estimated the following capacity to handle evacuees needs: Clothing, 8,899; shoes, 14,082; diapers, 12,024; hospital beds, 3906; and water, sewage, gas and electricity, 60,000.

William J. McLarty, state civilian defense field representative, was optimistic about the survey results. "I haven't seen too many of the other communities' reports but it appears the Daly City-Broadmoor area citizens are more than willing to handle evacuees."

Dan Andersen, local civil defense director, headed the survey, assisted by James Mason and 100 volunteer workers.

tion Commission Chairman Edmund Cavagnaro.

No Answer

"Several weeks ago we recommended to the council that Doelger set aside 12 acres for recreation," the chairman said. "We've never heard a word from the council on this recommendation."

Cavagnaro also hit a recent statement by a Doelger engineer that the present Westlake park site was an "eyesore."

"If this engineer would care to attend one of our commission meetings I'll tell him why the Westlake park isn't completed.

"We get a lot of complaints about the park from the people in Westlake. I'd like to invite these people up and tell them why it's not completed. It's a long story."

The engineer who had made the "eyesore" statement, Ted Tronoff, said that he was referring to the Westlake school site when he made the remark.

Cavagnaro concluded by saying, "The city's taking all the chances in this deal. We oldtimers are the ones who'll pay. The sub-divider's got nothing to lose."

Another member of the audience, Mrs. Jack D. White, asked the council, "What has the present Westlake development meant as far as taxes are concerned?"

Former Mayor Speaks

At this point former mayor Paul Green, now a salesman for the Doelger organization, arose to point out that the general fund tax rate is now lower than it was prior to the first Westlake annexation.

Several residents of the present Westlake subdivision were among protestants, with the Westlake park being chief complaint.

Mrs. Irvin Silberstein said, "I'd rather see the present city areas taken care of before we annex new property." Referring to the incompletion of the Westlake park, she added, "I'm tired of beautiful promises. We were promised a recreation area four and a half years ago and there's still nothing to show for it."

Mrs. Gordon Carlson, another Westlake resident and member of the local recreation commission, told of the drastic need for recreation in the current Westlake area. "For five years now these people have had no recreation facilities. Everything built in Daly City recently is either unfinished or too small."

Rec Head Agrees

James Mason, recreation director, concurred that there was a need for such facilities in Westlake and said the commission's recommendation of 12 acres of park sites was a desirable objective. However, he pointed out, cost of property and subsequent development sometimes make it impossible to obtain all the facilities desired.

Henry Murtagh brought up the subject of transportation and asked if any provision had been made for providing transit for residents of the proposed Westlake Highland development.

B. Poncetta, vice president of the Doelger organization, replied, "We have made arrangements for extending the No. 76 bus line as we move south. The San Francisco municipal railway is very happy about the response to the No. 76 bus and told us they were already thinking about extending their operation."

Another Westlake resident, John Eiler, who heads the League for Better schools, resumed discussion on recreation, pointing out that police were having more and more trouble with juvenile mischief because the children had no place to play.

Mayor Says Considered

Mayor Verducci said the council had considered the recreation needs and felt the situation could be adequately handled by entering into a cooperative agreement with school districts for use of their facilities.

At this point Doelger himself spoke up, pointing to the fact that the Jefferson Union High school district has a 63-acre site on Skyline boulevard.

"If the city could just use half of this for recreation it would be terrific," he said.

In answer to queries that older areas would be neglected when the Doelger project was well underway, Verducci stated that priority of projects would be at the discretion of the council and commissions.

"We can use property tax and state money accruing from the new annexation for work in the older section," Verducci said.

Castelan then countered, "We people who've been living here a long time have already paid for our city facilities. Doelger should be willing to pay a proportionate amount for new facilities needed." He suggested the builder be charged so much per lot, to which City Attorney Frank Blum answered such methods were illegal."

Wilson Enters Fray

Councilman Del Wilson then entered the fray for the first time. "On the last Westlake annexation I don't think the city of Daly City got a fair shake. Now I think we've reached a fair agreement.

"Why should we take advantage of a builder on one side of town when a lot of builders in this section don't do a thing for the city?"

When the annexation was first proposed several months ago Wilson had held out for a minimum charge to Doelger of $30 per lot on the 440 acres. This would have brought the city $90,000 from the 3000 lots.

At the close of arguments by citizens, Councilman Vickers said "I think these people have brought out some wonderful facts. I still believe we could work out a better agreement that would benefit the older section as well."

Asks Tax Rate

Asked by the mayor for his comments on the annexation, Councilman Micheal De Bernardi said, "All I'd like to know is how it will affect the tax rate." Accountant Hunter replied that, "After the area is fully developed my figures show the tax rate will be 57½ cents per $100 valuation." This is nearly one-third the current rate.

Councilman Dennis summed up his stand on the annexation when he said, "I've lived here in Daly City all my life and I certainly wouldn't be for this annexation if it wouldn't be an asset to the city."

Asked if the annexation would be subject to the proposed Daly City formally approved, Blum said it definitely would.

Handle Drainage, Road

Tronoff, in answer to other questions, said in event of any drainage problems or needs for thoroughfares, the Doelger organization would take care of financing them.

Monday night's action by Councilman Dennis in introducing the annexation ordinance marks the first step in bringing the area into Daly City. The ordinance must be read a second time, passed, and then becomes law after 30 days.

In order to speed second reading of the ordinance, Mayor Verducci ordered Monday's session adjourned to next Monday so the council can act officially.

Along with Doelger, other representatives of his organization present Monday were U. R. "Jack" Kendree, Poncetta, Tronoff and Carl Timmons.

Nazarenes Slate Pre-Christmas Program Sunday

Two special events will be featured for this Sunday's pre-Christmas session at Broadmoor Church of the Nazarene, the Rev. L. W. Goey, pastor, announces.

Beginning at 9:45 a.m. a Yule program will be presented by all the children in the Sunday school. This will include group participation as well as individual recitations and also singing.

All children present will be given a Christmas treat to take home.

Following the youngsters' program the pastor will present a Christmas message.

At 7:30 p.m. the youth group of the church will present a Christmas pageant, entitled, "Carol Finds Christmas."

Typo Auxiliary Enjoys Potluck At B'moor Home

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Peeler, 847 Stoneyford drive, Broadmoor, were hosts Tuesday to the annual Christmas party and potluck dinner of Woman's Auxiliary, Typographical Union 21, and Mailers' Union 18.

Mrs. Florence Baird of Daly City, chairman of the entertainment committee, President Anne Taillon of San Francisco and members of the committee, arranged a gala evening, according to the Auxiliary, with games and gifts exchanged following the potluck dinner.

Some of the articles to be given to the children in various hospitals were on display. These included 24 story book dolls, 214 tapestry and damask Christmas bags filled with 747 scratch pads, 67 boxes of crayons, 67 coloring books, 14 stuffed animals, 144 pencils, 70 story books, 36 small dolls, 80 scrap books, 25 bibs, three dresses, 24 stuffed dolls, 15 afghans, 23 pairs of terry cloth slippers and over 200 small toys.

SCOUTS MAP GOOD TURN YULE PROJECTS

Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Explorers throughout the area are in the midst of a variety of Christmas Good Turn projects that will brighten the yuletide season of many—children and adults alike—locally and internationally. The Boy Scouts, a member agency of the Community Chest, is supported by the United Crusade.

Some have decided upon the traditional Christmas project of filling baskets with turkey and the trimmings for some of the less fortunate in San Francisco.

A "make-you-own scrapbook" kit will be presented to each patient at the children's TB ward of the San Francisco City County Hospital some time before Christmas by Cub Scouts of Pack 113 in the Lake Merced Scout district. Their Cubmaster is Raymond R. Griggs, 120 Lynnewood dr., Daly City, and their sponsor, the College City Lakeside Presbyterian church.

The Cubs have been assembling the scrapbook kits themselves. Eash will have a different subject matter, and the 45 children in the hospital ward will put together the contents. The kits include everything from pictures to scissors, paste, and cord.

Children, Christmas Give Holiday Air To Snell PTA Meet

Children and Christmas, a happy combination anywhere, gave the December meeting of the James L. Snell PTA, held at the Garden Village school last Wednesday evening, a true holiday feeling, complete with color, music and traditional refreshments and a very real awareness of the real meaning of Christmas. The 180 attending members joined with the student Glee club in singing the closing carol, after the group of 30 children, dressed in white choir boy collars and yellow wings, and carrying red candles, had presented a program of favorite Christmas songs.

The Rev. Louis C. Marting of the Hope Lutheran church spoke of the interelationship of parents, children and Christmas, and provided each member of the audience with a folder containing the outline of his talk. He spoke of parents' usefulness to their children, in that they can encourage a proper balance between the material and spiritual aspects of living, and in that they can teach children the blessedness of giving and true gratefulness for receiving.

He reminded the group that children can also be of use to their parents, teaching many qualities through their merely being children, and he brought to mind the way that Christ regarded childlikeness as much to be desired in adults.

Christmas can help everyone, he went on, if it is kept truly in the heart and in the home throughout the year. The more commercial aspects of the holiday sometimes tend to push aside the real feeling of the day, what it stands for and the simplicity of its beginning. If these are remembered, Christmas becomes of greater value to all, everywhere.

Mrs. Larry Green added to the spirit of the meeting with her reading of an article (in the December Ladies' Home Journal) also concerned with the true meaning of Christmas.

Mrs. A. S. Helmer, membership chairman, announced that the unit now has 55 members, and Mrs. Max Hoffman, parent education chairman, announced that discussion classes, on several subjects, would be held on Tuesday evenings, starting at the end of January. Refreshments were served by the first grade room mothers.

HIGHEST TRAFFIC TOLL

The highest traffic toll ever recorded over a holiday in the United States was during the four-day Christmas Holiday of 1950 when five hundred and forty-five persons were killed in traffic accidents, reports the National Automobile Club.

YOUR NEIGHBORS AND MINE

By Betty Brush

Hello Neighbors:

Aren't the houses getting really brightened up these days? It is really too bad that the Christmas season lasts such a very short time. There is so much kindness and friendliness these days that one wishes it could last forever. There is also very much going on among the folks so let's get on with the news.

First of all to start the week off we have a birthday. MISS NELLIE GARGAN of Goethe street awoke to the day as usual and when finally her phone rings she hears, "Happy Birthday to you" and she realized that it was really her birthday. She and her brother MR. JOSEPH GARGAN were invited out for dinner in honor of the occasion and spent a very enjoyable evening. Happy birthday from all the rest of the folks too, Nell.

The Scouts of SCOUT TROOP 243 of O.L.P.H. Parish would like to take this way of saying thanks to many people for the interest shown in their "Big Event" last Sunday. First of all they would like to thank REV. JOHN NORMAN ALLEN for the use of the Parish Hall without which there could have been no concert. Then there is MR. TOM MURPHY SR. who is President of the Holy Name Society of O.L.P.H. MR. JACK HANEY of the Men's Club who handled the loud speaking system, and MR. MANUEL DE LEON of the De Leon School of Music for the grand performance of his pupils. The boys were given a wonderful breakfast after Mass in the morning and a party followed at which five of the seven prizes given were won by the scouts. The purpose of this event was to bring the parents closer to the understanding of the ideals and aims of scouting and this was just what happened. One of the folks, MR. TOM MURPHY JR. was so interested that he has consented to be an assistant scout master. Congratulations to a fine group of men in their fine work with your boys and mine.

Items of Interest

A very lovely little lady had a birthday Thursday, December 16th. MISS JANET BRUSH, daughter of MR. and MRS. WILLIAM BRUSH of Niantic avenue has reached the grand age of six years old. Janet was hostess at a party for many of her little friends and some of her family. A more starry eyed little girl and more perfect hostess has yet to be seen. Happy birthday Janet from all of us too.

Folks are still traveling. Leaving us Wednesday, December 14th, were MRS. WILLIAM HUTCHING and three of her children, HAROLD, WILLIE, and EVELYN MARIE. They have gone to spend Christmas with Mrs. Hutchings sister, MRS. JAMES KELSCH in Carberville, Pennsylvania. Many of the folks will remember Mrs. Kelsch as the former MRS. EDNA LOWDEN who used to live in our town. They plan on having a really white Christmas and New Years and will be back to tell us all about it around the 15th of January. Having never seen a white Christmas, I wish I were going with them.

Leaving our fair city for his home in Tampa, Florida, is one of our former neighbors, RAYMOND (SONNY) CAMERON. He has been here for the past two months visiting with his grandmother, MRS. ROSE HAZELHURST of Miriam street. Sonny is the son of TINA and AL CAMERON who for so many years lived with us and still never forget their former neighbors and friends. They keep good track of the goings on in our town through THE RECORD, which is sent to them each week.

A very little young man has had a birthday. KIP EUGENE McBAIN, son of MR. and MRS. KENNETH McBAIN of Manila Way, Colma, is now one year old. The young man received many presents from family and friends in honor of the occasion and a good time was had by all his folks on his special day. Happy Birthday, Kip.

HILLCREST CIRCLE NO. 143 U.O.A.D. held it's annual Christmas party Monday, December 13th. This year the party was for the members only with Santa Claus in the person of MRS. ANN EASON being the center of attraction. Before the party they held their regular meeting presided over by MA MA LOMBARD at which they obligated three new candidates.

Seems another young man beat Santa Claus here last year. Little SCOTT LLOYD TAYLOR, son of MR. and MRS. CLYDE A. TAYLOR of Lynnewood drive, has celebrated his first birthday last week. He knew the day was special for him as he received many nice gifts in honor of the occasion from family and friends. Happy birthday Scott from all the folks.

Servicemen

Eight days from today will be Christmas. Have you sent your card to a boy in either the service or in one of the service hospitals yet? If not an air mail stamp will still get it there on time.

I received an unexpected and most welcome letter last week. Seems like MERVYN F. PANDISCIO of the U. S. Navy figures that people will think he has too much work to do to answer letters. I quote, "I would very much like to hear from those who would like to write to me, but I am afraid they will not write if they think that I am on an island fifteen miles long and five miles wide. You see I am not on an island that size. The island I am on is only two and a half miles long and three quarters of a mile wide. It is a member of the Marshall Islands and it's name is Kwajalein. I believe, if the people of your city know the true size of this island they will realize the need of letters to a serviceman stationed on it to help him pass his time away." In a previous column I had mistakenly exaggerated the size of his Island so am most happy to correct said mistake now. The letter speaks for itself, folks, how about it. Anyone can have his address by calling me as it is much too long to put in here but I'll be most happy to give it to any who call.

Another of the youngsters who are no longer boys was heard from this week. PFC. RICHARD L. BYGUM of the U. S. Marine Corps is stationed at the Marine Barracks at Battan. He also would like mail from any of his pals who happen to read this. You can reach him by writing—Pfc. Richard L. Bygum—U.S.M. 147-3549, Marine Barracks—U.S.N.S.—Navy 3002 c/o Post Master, San Francisco. Come on guys and gals, let's let Dick know that he is still remembered.

Had another letter from Korea yesterday. This time it has a picture of A 1/c RICHARD PHELPS and his houseboy KO. They have word that they are being sent to a new destination but one thing good about it is that Dick has a buddy stationed where he is going so he is looking forward to a grand reunion with his friend Jackson.

Heard from a spot in Japan this week. Seems long johns are the current style now and A 2/c ALBERT J. BRUSH is very happy to go along with the style. This isn't his first taste of really cold weather as he has previously served eighteen months at Amarillo Air Force Base in Texas where it gets mighty cold.

News and Views

Among those who attended the cocktail party in honor of the engagement of Mrs. Castellano's brother, MR. DON PARIS to MISS ANN ZAPPONI were MR. and MRS. JOSEPH CASTELLANO and daughters DOLLY, JOANN and DIANE. The party was held at the home MRS. ZAPPONI in Palo Alto and many beautiful gifts were received by the prospective bride and groom. A late afternoon buffet was served to over fifty guests who attended the affair to wish the young couple much happiness. The wedding is scheduled for early summer and congratulations are extended from all the folks, too.

Four more excited and happy boys you never did see. At the breakfast given Scout Troop 243 by the Holy Name Society last Sunday the following boys walked home with an advance Christmas present. The 49ers autographed football was won by GIL MORENO, a trapper baseball mit by IRVING CLEMO, a pair of Winchester roller skates by MIKE BRUSH and a truck by RON NORLOCK.

Being the season of the year that it is, one of the folks asked if I would reprint an article that I had written long ago. She wants to send it to someone so if you will bear with a reprint here it is:

"According to Webster, Tolerance is endurance, bearing, sharing or putting up with. Among the many ills of the world, and there are many, intolerance ranks among one of the first. Why must this be so? First of all we are each individual human beings with God-given rights of thought and action, governed of course by all whom we either live or come in contact with. Each of us has not only our own ills, trials, worries, joys, and happiness to bear but there are many of us who think enough of the rest of us to share theirs with them. This makes a double load of endurance. If each and every one of us would recognize the fact that the other fellow has his share of the load to bear as well as we do—life would be every so much smoother. How do we expect Peace (and this is the season of peace) in the world when there is so little in our own lives? To be tolerant is to grant each person the right to think and do as he himself figures is the best for himself under the circumstances. Live and let live, live and love and be just in our judgement, if we must judge, that we may all live together. Not as we think others should maybe live, possibly according to our standards, because maybe ours are not for them; but each to his own standard with the respect due for what he is and not what he should be in his neighbors eyes."

This is rather an apt thought for this time of year at that so hope you don't mind the repeat.

Wel, folks, that seems to do it for this week. Next week is Christmas week and there is ever so much going on that I will have for you. Remember the phone is still PL. 5-6482 and I'll be waiting to hear from you. Until then, 'Bye now.

Crocker School News Notes

Fifth Grade - Room 4
Miss G. Kearney

We were happy to have been one of the classes chosen to help decorate our hall for Christmas. The children decided to draw a Nativity scene which was placed in the hall. The artists were Adele Sanders, Diane Rivera, John Petersen, Judy Beutler, and Darlene Witte.

All the children are in the Christmas spirit and are busy making ornaments for their Christmas tree which they will have in their room.

The class collected $2.19 for the Red Cross, and are now obtaining toys for the "Toys for Tots" drive for the less fortunate children in this area so that they may have a joyful Christmas.

Sixth Grade - Room 3
Miss C. Clark, Teacher
By Ronald Sanders

This month Miss Clark's class is studying Mexico. We are going to have a Mexican Christmas. It is called Los Posados which is a Mexican celebration of Mary and Joseph. In the ceremony are two people dressed up like Mary and Joseph. They go from door to door looking for a place to stay for eight nights. Finally, the ninth night they chose someone to let them in and they have a big celebration.

They have pinatas hanging in their patios. The pinata is a clay jar designed with paint to look like a person, plants, or animal. They fill them with toys and candy. All the children gather around and take turns trying to break the pinatas. They blindfold some boys or girls and spin around, then let them go. They have a stick and have three tries to hit the pinata. When someone hits it, it breaks and the candy spills out.

We have made a mural about an American Christmas in the hall. It has Santa and his Reindeer and a little village with a church, a school, and some stores. We had some small bulletin boards out in the hall and we decorated them with wreaths and candles.

Woodrow Wilson PTA Braves Storm For Annual Bazaar

In spite of stormy weather the December 3 bazaar held by the Woodrow Wilson PTA was highly successful, according to the chairman. Those attending during the dinner hour enjoyed a hearty repast, she said.

"The children were delighted with the game room and surprise packages. Everyone attending found something to their liking. Of great attraction was the trading post set up by Mrs. Pless and Mrs. Wood. The executive board wishes to thank everyone for braving the weather in order to attend and bring the bazaar to its successful conclusion," she concluded.

Next PTA meeting will be held January 18 at 1:15 p.m. in Room 10. Dental health will be featured and speaker of the day will be the school nurse, Mrs. Boykin. A program will be put on by Mrs. Watson's second grade.

Today (Friday) Christmas parties will be held in each classroom. Teachers, with the assistance of room mothers, are planning a festive day for the children. That same day also marks the beginning of the Christmas vacation for the children.

The president urged members not to forget the salvage drive that is to take place the last week of January. Each year Woodrow Wilson takes part in this drive."

Cub Scout Pack 62 Holds Christmas Party

A total of 30 youngsters in Cub Scout Pack 62 turned out Friday at Bellevue hall for the annual Christmas party.

During the activity, election of officers was held, with Eugene Johnson named as Cubmaster.

Other officers selected were: Robert Burnes, committee chairman; Frank Prisco, assistant Cubmaster; Joe Baird, treasurer; Tony Samprino, secretary; Baird, institutional representative; and Mrs. Ellie Broadbent, publicity chairman.

Cubmaster Johnson will take over the post formerly held by Prisco.

The infant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Enrico Bertini of San Bruno, was christened earlier that afternoon at St. San Bruno Catholic church. Godfather and Godmother were Dale Fambrini and Mrs. Rose Savoia, respectively.

THE WORLD'S MOST WIDELY USED DEVOTIONAL GUIDE

Read II Corinthians 5:17-21.

If any one is in Christ, he is a new creation, (II Corinthians 5:17. RSV.)

One day a man said to me: "I could not stop drinking. I was in jail my fifth time caused by my craving for rice wine. Then a Japanese pastor preached in the prison and gave me a copy of John's Gospel. Its message gripped me and I decided to follow Christ. My whole life changed. I lost my craving for drink. When released from prison, I went to a church and became a Christian." Now he is a new creation, busy telling others about Christ's saving power.

If we regard people from the human point of view only, they are hopeless slaves of sin. If we regard Christ only from a human point of view, He become only an example of moral perfection to which we cannot attain.

But however much we may be bound by the chains of human weakness, in Christ we may find divine strength that can make us new creations. With Paul we then say: "Thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ."

PRAYER

O God, Thou didst create man for fellowship with Thy holy self. Help me this day, as a child of Thine, to see everyone with Thine eyes of tender mercy and love and devotion for his highest good. In Jesus' name. Amen.

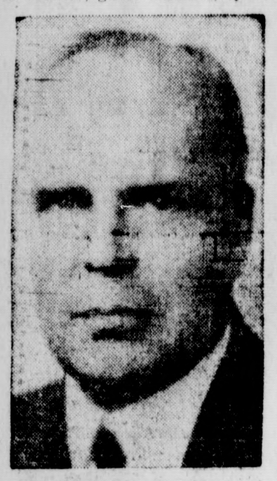

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

"If the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed."

Bayshore Extends Sympathies On Mrs. Smith's Death

Bayshore PTA has extended its deepest sympathy to Mrs. Wayne Liebert, president, on the death of her mother, Mrs. Anna Smith, who passed away recently, in Stockton, Calif.

Taking over the gavel for Mrs. Liebert was the vice-president, Mrs. Marse Datzman. Following the regular agenda of the meeting, Mrs. Thomas McNamara introduced the guest speaker, the Rev. Lloyd Strehl of the St. James Presbyterian church, who spoke on "Religion in the home."

Open house was held in Bayshore and Midway Village schools yesterday.

Bayshore PTA will sponsor the childrens Christmas party today, which is the last day of the 1954 school year. Mrs. N. G. Jones is the chairman for this gala affair, and the synopsis of tentative plans sounds like the children are in for a good time. Five Christmas trees were purchased by the Bayshore PTA to be distributed in both schools.

Both Bayshore and Brisbane schools expressed sorrow to hear of the death of Mrs. Mary Frances Lipman, mother of Miss Natalie Lipman, superintendent of both school districts. Bayshore PTA extended its sympathy to Miss Lipman in her loss.

Toys for Tots will be collected at Bayshore and Midway Village schools, according to Miss Dorothy Fitzgerald, principal, and all parents are requested to bring in discarded and new toys for the less fortunate children.

Indians Turn Back Tamalpais; Suffer 2 Tourney Losses

Displaying a well-distributed scoring attack, Jefferson High school varsity cagers turned back a well regarded Tamalpais team, 55-32, in a contest on the home court Tuesday. It was their second victory in three practice games.

Jeffs' Jim Honeywell rolled up the highest point total with 10, as he hit a phenomenal five long shots in five attempts.

Three Indians, Al Figone, Ray Schultz and Al Lagomarsino, compiled six points apiece, with remainder of the scoring spread throughout the roster of 14 players used by Coach Mike Orlich.

Jefferson led all the way, commanding the situation 26-15 at half-time.

A luke-warm Indian 30 team relinquished a 17-15 half-time lead to bow to the Tamalpais lights, 41-34.

Despite Bill Curtis' 20-point output for the local 30s, the club couldn't match a 12-point spurt in the final quarter by Tamalpais Center Bill Branberg.

Curtis rolled up his highest scoring effort to date as he hit on jump shots and under the basket.

Friday's action in the Hayward Invitational Tourney found the Daly City varsity taking a double drubbing.

In the opening contest they were turned back by Bishop O'Dowd, 43-37, after leading most of the way.

James Licks took the measure of the Jeffs in the second contest, 43-35.

Standout for the locals was Figone, who potted 11 in the first contest and 15 in the nightcap. In the latter game he sunk nine free throws in nine attempts.

For his outstanding play Figone was named to the All-Tournament club.

The two clubs left today (Friday) for an evening contest with Sonora.

MATEO CAGERS HOST RIVALS THIS FRIDAY

College of San Mateo basketball players host their conference rivals, City College of San Francisco, this Friday evening in the Baldwin gym.

Last Saturday, the college marching band, composed of students drawn from the entire county, flew to the Junior Rose Bowl game in Pasadena, taking part in the parade and in the pre-game ceremonies in the Bowl. Following the game, which Hinds jaysee of Mississippi won from El Camino jaysee of California, 12-7, the band group visited two television studios and a radio studio, dined in the Farmers Market and flew home late the same night.

The college yell leaders accompanied the band south and attended an annual contest arranged by the western regional section of the National Yell Leaders association and taking place at Pepperdine college. San Mateo won first place in the individual contest, and second in the unit contests. San Mateo's yell leaders are Bob Wood, Dolly Catanz, Carla Jones and Maureen Kennedy.

CHORUS GROUP OPENS THIRD CAROL SEASON

Men of Note, 40-man chorus made up of men in the Lake Merced area, opened their third season of Christmas carolling last night (Thursday) at San Francisco Presidio's Letterman hospital.

A group of neighborhood men from 18 to 80 years of age, the Men of Note meet Mondays in Westlake to sing for fun and relaxation, under the direction of Mabel Jacobs of San Francisco.

Next Monday at 8 a.m., in place of the regular practice session, the group will make a special Christmas appearance in the Little Brown Church at Sharp Park.

Nine carols are scheduled, with Jack Carli, 110 Crespie, Parkmerced, singing a first tenor solo, "Christmas Song," and Tom Mallen, 40 Forest Grove drive, Westlake, giving a second tenor solo, "Silent Night."

All men in the Lake Merced area who like singing are invited to contact the membership chairman, Jack Dennis, PL 5-5159, for information on the first meeting for 1955.

Three Services Mark Broadmoor Christmas Sunday

Christmas Sunday will be observed at Broadmoor Community Presbyterian church this Sunday, opening with a coffee class at 9:45 a.m.

At the coffee class the Rev. John A. Glasse, minister, will speak on the "Virgin Birth."

At 11 a.m. sanctuary and chancel choirs will render "Sing Noel" and "Gloria in Excelsis Deo." Minister's sermon topic will be "The Savior Is Here."

Evening religious activity will be marked by an impressive candle light service for all the family, "The Light of the World," to be offered at 6 p.m. The program is to be given by the Westminster Fellowship and directed by Elsie Maclaren. The public is invited to all three of the above services.

New Year's eve an all-church family night will be held from 6:30 until 8:30 p.m. Pot luck dinner will be served. Coffee class will provide milk for the children and coffee for adults.

RECONCILIATION OF CHRISTMAS CHOSEN AS LUTHERAN TOPIC

In observation of the Advent Time, "The Reconciliation of Christmas" has been chosen by the Rev. Luther M. Schliesser, pastor of the Lutheran Church of Our Savior, for his sermon topic on Sunday.

Communion was celebrated for the last time in 1954 last Sunday, but the forgiving of sins will be one of the main objects of the church in the next year.

New table tops have been provided for the new educational unit by Arnold Edinger, and Steve Gaal, known for his son's Golden Gate swim, is installing a new waterline to take care of the irrigation needs of the new landscaping around the church grounds.

BARBATA NAMED GOLDEN WEST "Y" BOARD CHAIRMAN

Victor A. Barbata, 119 Sylvan drive, was elected chairman of the Board of the Golden West YMCA at the first annual meeting on December 6, in the new Stonestown quarters.

Barbata, who has long been connected with the "Y" and its many-sided activities in the west of Twin Peaks area, will serve for a three-year period together with Cleland O. Whitton, first vice-chairman; Paul Balck, second vice-chairman; Mrs. Jesse McLendon, women's vice-chairman; and Irving C. Irelan, past chairman.

"It is just a year ago that the Golden West YMCA has moved into the spacious Stonestown building at 333 Eucalyptus drive," said Barbata. "We are equipped with a gymnasium, craft rooms and large social rooms and have an expert staff to offer many and varied services to the growing community west of the Peaks.

"Our main emphasis will be on guiding and developing teenagers through our high school club program. But we shall continue to serve the younger age groups with the "Live Yers" craft and gym classes and the summer day camp. Fathers and sons will find expanding interest in the "Y-Indian Guides" and, on the college level, the "Students Y" group is becoming an active on-campus club.

Serving on the board of managers of the Golden West YMCA for a new three-year term are: Frank Conklin, Richard Dachner, James C. Fulton, Louis R. Gomberg, Joseph B. Hill, Richard A. Koch, M.D., Mrs. Jesse McLendon, Joseph C. Sand, Ralph E. Scovel, M. D., Wencil C. Storek Jr., John W. Weitzel and Cleland O. Whitton.

An 11-point barrage in the fourth quarter turned a close game into a rout Saturday at Daly City community center as Sharp Park upended last-year's champions, Westlake Globetrotters, 38-19, in the opening "A" division contest of the Daly City Recreation Basketball league.

The Coastsiders' Bill Shook and Dave Simmons, with 15 and 13 points, respectively, provided the one-two punch that cooled the defending champs.

Loss of Steve Oppermann in the fourth quarter because of a muscle spasm hurt the "Lakers" cause, as up to that time Oppermann had put through eight digits. Trailing him for scoring honors on the Westlake five was Ross Holmgren with six.

Rebels Smother 'OLPH

Highlighting "A" division play was the debut of Colma Rebels, who ran roughshod over a bedraggled OLPH Giant team, 57-16.

Larry Schoenfeldt poured through 20 markers for the winners, followed by Don Burley, who hit for 16.

Ron Kalinin, while registering only six tallies, proved the playmaker of the smooth Rebel club and was hailed by observers as "the best floor man seen yet" at the community center pavilion.

The Giants were sadly outclassed from the opening buzzer and showed an unbelievable 32-1 half-time deficit.

Only opposition from the Giant club was Joe Millet, who managed to get 11 of his team's point total in the second half, while Jim Curtin accounted for the remaining six counters.

First Time Blanked

Recreation officials said it was the first time in memory that a team had failed to score a field goal in the entire first half in a league game.

Brisbane, only other team in the "A" circuit (for eighth graders) drew a bye.

"B" division competition found OLPH squeaking by their parochial school rivals, Holy Angels, 22-21.

The two clubs traded the lead several times throughout the game, with the OLPH quintet getting the clincher with seconds remaining.

Sharing scoring honors for OLPH were Bill Whalen, Jim Millet and Franklin Watts with six apiece. Scoring was just as evenly distributed for Holy Angels, as McVeigh, Vecelk, La Bruie and Downey each accounted for four apiece. Perata led scoring for the losers with five.

Ducks Edge Broadmoor

Another hard fought "B" contest found Brisbane Ducks, paced by Bob White's 14 markers, turning back Broadmoor, 24-16. Wayne Moon and Bill Duggan had six apiece for the winners.

Broadmoor could have fashioned an upset had they started as fast as they finished. In the second half the Broadmoor five was tanking 10 points, holding Brisbane to four.

Only other "B" outing saw Sharp Park wallop Broadmoor Cards, 17-9, behind the 10-point output of the Coastsiders' Henry Caldule.

FIRST ROUND KEG LEG CLOSES -- DALY CITY EAGLES LEAD PACK

First round of the Daly City-Colma Bowling league at Brentwood drew to a close Tuesday with Daly City Eagles seated in top spot by a one-game margin.

Eagles, with 30 wins, 12 losses, will vie with Apple Tree Restaurant, 29-13, next week to decide the first round champion.

One victory for the Eagles Tuesday will give them a tie for the crown, while two games will cinch it.

Holding down third spot at the first round wind-up was 101 club, 28 wins, 14 losses.

Vince & Fred, by virtue of Babe De Luca's 242 high game and 625 high series, notched a triple win over Walters and finished in fourth position with a 26-16 mark.

Vince Merlo, proprietor of the local tavern team, rolled a 200 game for one of the better scores of the evening. Frank Thur of Thur Meats had second high game, 215.

Tying for the third high individual game Tuesday were Otto Schramm of Daly City-Colma Lions and Pete Collodi of Apple Tree, each with 209s. Collodi turned in a pair of 209 games and emerged with second top series, 575.

John Piorkowsky of Daly City Eagles hit two games of 201 and wound up with a neat 570 series, second high behind De Luca.

Other high games included R. Keefer (Apple Tree), 191; E. Hafft (John's Drive-in Rest), 201; Al Wright (Ralph's Cleaners), 195; Irvine Walters (Carlos Pizzeria), 203; Harold Riley (101 Club), 193; John Krabec (Lucca Meats), 195; J. Sandi (Thur Meat Co.), 193; Frank Lister (Eagles), 202; Stan White (Central Club), 192; Bob Olivo (Central Club), 202.

While his 306 series was hardly sensational, M. Swoverland of Marketeers gained notice because he rolled three individual games of 122 each.

Broadmoor Youth Group Organizes Basketball League

Organized basketball teams under the direction of Everett Heick are being formed by the Broadmoor Youth association for boys of the sixth and eighth grades, president Bob Goodwin of the B. Y. A. announced today.

Inexperienced youths will be taught the proper rudiments of the game, and will be tutored by members of the B. Y. A., some of whom are famous in the world of basketball.

Practice sessions started (Thursday) at 7 p.m. in the Jefferson High gym. From these sessions, teams for league competition will be formed, according to Heick.

An invitation has been extended to all youth of the Broadmoor area to participate in the athletic endeavor. Interested youth may obtain further information by calling Art Dougherty at PL. 5-1367 or Ev. Heick at PL. 5-4680.

You get extra value in the big features that set Ford apart from all others in beauty—that give you extra-responsive performance and superb riding comfort . . . and you get extra value throughout the car. For example: Ford's brakes are 10% bigger, for smoother stops and longer lining life—new Turbo-Action Spark Plugs resist "fouling" much longer—new Tubeless Tires are quieter, easier-riding. These and many more advanced features combine to make the '55 Ford truly the fine car of its field!
